

Quaker Knoll Camping Program Code of Conduct

- Everyone is expected to follow the guidelines. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action.
- If you need to be gone at any time during the event, to work or for other obligations, you need to arrange your schedule in advance with the director. You must sign out a sign in when leaving and returning.
- You will respect all other participants and their property, as well as the property of the Quaker Knoll facility.
- At lights out, you will be in your own room/cabin.
- Your attendance is expected at all sessions during camp unless exempted by the director.
- You are expected to clean up your own room/cabin and leave furniture arranged as found.
- If you are taking prescription drugs of any kind, you must report this to the director. When a nurse is present, all medicines are to be given to the nurse.
- It is not acceptable during camp to perform bodily alterations such as piercing, tattooing, hair coloring/cutting, or any other major variations.
- Do not bring personal food, gum, or drinks.
- Use of electronic items such as cell phones and iPods will be permitted at the discretion of the director. Please contact the director of your camp if you have any questions.
- Footwear is required on the campgrounds.
- You must report any illness or injury to the director of your camp.
- Any public use of media should reflect Christian values.
- Absolutes for which the disciplinary action will be sending you home:
 - You may not possess any tobacco products, any alcohol, any non-prescription drug, any weapons such as knives or firearms, or any fireworks.
- Sleeping areas are off-limits to members of the opposite sex.

I have read the above Code of Conduct and agree to follow it while at Quaker Knoll Camp.
