Webinar: Quaker Spirituality in the Mexican Cloud Forest:

The Eco-Justice Collaborative and the Center for Spiritual Ecology invite you to join us for a sojourn in the Mexican Cloud Forest to restore ourselves and the world. In this webinar, we will share the details of the sojourn which is scheduled for May 24-31, 2026. We know that personal healing and planetary healing cannot be separated.

Come learn about the sojourn which will focus on simplicity, living on a solar budget, ecological restoration, feeding our souls, and seeing the divine in the natural world. During the webinar we will share more about the local projects you will visit in reforestation, sustainable agriculture, alternative technologies and the opportunity to work hand in hand with Mexicans in Joanna Macy's Work That Reconnects. We will share the story of how Philadelphia YM Quakers Alan Wright and Paula Kline created a private conservation area to regenerate 250 acres of Mexican cloud forest.

We will answer any questions you have regarding whether this Sustainability Sojourn is right for you on your journey. Registration form for the Sojourn
